

Non-Fiction Key Terms Bookmark

Non-Fiction Key Language Terms

Adjective – describes

Adverb – describes a verb

Alliteration – first letter repeated

Direct address – speaks to reader

Emotive language – provokes a response

Hyperbole – exaggeration

Imperative – a command

Metaphor – compares by using 'is'

Noun – person, place or thing

Personification – human qualities in an object

Repetition – over and over again

Rhetorical question – no answer required

Rule of three – list of three

Simile – describes using 'like' or 'as'

Verb – a doing word

twinkl.co.uk

Non-Fiction Key Language Terms

Adjective – describes

Adverb – describes a verb

Alliteration – first letter repeated

Direct address – speaks to reader

Emotive language – provokes a response

Hyperbole – exaggeration

Imperative – a command

Metaphor – compares by using 'is'

Noun – person, place or thing

Personification – human qualities in an object

Repetition – over and over again

Rhetorical question – no answer required

Rule of three – list of three

Simile – describes using 'like' or 'as'

Verb – a doing word

twinkl.co.uk

Non-Fiction Key Language Terms

Adjective – describes

Adverb – describes a verb

Alliteration – first letter repeated

Direct address – speaks to reader

Emotive language – provokes a response

Hyperbole – exaggeration

Imperative – a command

Metaphor – compares by using 'is'

Noun – person, place or thing

Personification – human qualities in an object

Repetition – over and over again

Rhetorical question – no answer required

Rule of three – list of three

Simile – describes using 'like' or 'as'

Verb – a doing word

twinkl.co.uk